

EDINBURGH NATURAL HISTORY
SOCIETY

FORTHCOMING EVENTS:

Autumn 2007 - Spring 2008

Outdoor Excursions

2007	Place	Leader	Meeting Point	Meeting time
13 th October Saturday	Pressmennon Wood Lichens	Chris Ellis	Woodland Trust CP NT621 726	10:30
27 th October Saturday	Loch Glow and Cleish Hills	Joanie Fairlie	CP off B9097 NT099 955	10:30
1 st December Saturday	Yellowcraig to N. Berwick	Mary Tebble	Yellowcraig CP NT516 855	10:30
28 th December Friday	Walk at West Linton (Optional lunch at Gordon Arms)	Janet Watson	In village behind church NT149 516	11:00
2008
19 th January Saturday	Vogrie Country Park	Neville Crowther	CP NT362 647	10:30
16 th February Saturday	Walk by Union Canal	Lyn Blades	By Canal at Winchburgh NT087 753	10:30
15 th -16 th March Saturday - Sunday	Caerlaverock Wetland Centre		Details being arranged – keep posted
12 th April Saturday	Cullaloe SWT Reserve	Neville Crowther	CP off B9157 NT186 872	10:30

Wednesday evening lectures

All Indoor Meetings will be held at:

The Guide Hall, 33 Melville Street, Edinburgh commencing at 7:30 pm. The Guide Hall is located in Melville Street just east of the Episcopalian Cathedral at the west end of the City.

2007 - 2008 ENHS Winter Lecture Programme
21 November 2007	Butterflies of Scotland and Bulgaria Paul Kirkland, Butterfly Conservation in Scotland
23 January 2008	Sub-arctic willows in Scotland: bio-diversity research for conservation Jeremy Milne
20 February 2008	Protecting Our Woodland Fungi - the relevance for tree conservation Philip Mason
26 March 2008	Bats, the threats they face and how to help Bat Conservation Anne Youngman, Bat Conservation Trust